Music in the Park comes to the historic West End

ATLANTA – Join Atlanta City Councilmember Clela Winslow for Kebbi Williams' Music in the Park on Saturday, April 30 at the Wren's Nest, located at 1050 Ralph David Abernathy Boulevard, S.W. and on Sunday, May 1 at Evan P. Howell Park, located at the corner of Ralph David Abernathy Boulevard, and Peoples Street, S.W. Williams is a Grammy-award winning saxophonist who lives in Southwest Atlanta's Historic West End .

On Saturday from 3 p.m. until 7:30 p.m. Music in the Park will feature performances by young musicians at the Wren's Nest. Sunday's performances from 1 p.m. until 7 p.m. in Evan P. Howell Park will feature the following line up:

- James Robertson
- Georgia State University Jazz Band
- Donnie
- Special Guests from South Africa
- Russell Gunn
- Miguel Atwood Orchestra featuring Youth of Atlanta

"As the council person for this area and as Kebbi's neighbor, I am honored to be a part of this event along with the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs by helping to bring top-quality jazz talent to the West End through the City of Atlanta's Neighborhood jazz series," said Winslow.
